

20 Year White House Reporter Is Dismissed

By WHITNEY SHOEMAKER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Jack Romagna, who has taken down the major declarations and minor utterances of four presidents, has been fired as official White House reporter.

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger announced Friday that Romagna "has left the employ of the White House" and was being replaced by a Washington reporting service.

Romagna said he had got the word after arriving at the White House in the morning for what he thought was a lifetime job. Now, he said, his plans are unclear.

Romagna's dismissal marked one more step in a revamping of the White House press office. Salinger said no further changes were contemplated.

Romagna, 51, has been using his rapid shorthand since 1941 to take down presidential speeches, news conferences, talks to visiting delegations at the White House and press secretary briefings. He employed a fountain pen to transcribe Franklin D. Roosevelt's wartime speeches and the addresses of Harry S. Truman, Dwight D. Eisenhower and John F. Kennedy. His job carried him across the United States and abroad.

There have been signs in recent months of cooling relations between the White House press office and Romagna.

Several weeks ago he transcribed remarks President Kennedy delivered by telephone to a conference of mayors in Miami Beach, Fla., and noted in the heading that the President had spoken from the White House swimming pool.

This disturbed several staff members, and after an initial distribution of copies to newsmen, a new supply was prepared, omitting reference to the swimming pool.

Aides said that because of a change in timing, Kennedy happened to be in the pool at the time he was expected to speak.

Says Police Jail Too Many Drunks

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Although almost one of every two arrests is for public intoxication, drunkenness itself is not sufficient reason to arrest a person on a disorderly conduct charge, a New York judge said Thursday.

Chief Justice John M. Murtaugh of the New York Court of Special Sessions said a person lying in a doorway might be lonely and homeless, but not disorderly.

Murtaugh told Arkansas Peace Officers attending a two-day convention in Little Rock that present approaches to alcoholism and narcotics addition are the reaction of a hostile society to problems it does not understand.

He said society's approach was neither scientific nor intelligent, and accused policemen of aggravating the problem by cooperating in a "crude program of lock-up."

The judge said narcotics addiction posed the same problem—that it was a relatively minor matter that had a large impact on law enforcement.

A person on Skid Row is a threat to himself and only himself, he said. It is right for society to aspire to help an alcoholic, but it is wrong to compel him to undergo treatment.

"If I am drinking myself down the drain, that's essentially a problem between the Lord and myself," Murtaugh said. "The New York court system is being imperiled because we ask police officers, judges and courts to solve a pathological enigma."

Theater Bomb Threat

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—The Malco Theater at Hot Springs was evacuated Wednesday after an unidentified caller said a bomb had been planted inside the partially filled theater. Police said Thursday that they found no bomb.

Escaping Fuel From Wrecked Jet Tanker Threatens Downtown Hope

THOUSANDS OF GALLONS OF ESCAPING JET FUEL following the wrecking of a big highway tanker by a Missouri Pacific train at the Elm St. crossing put Hope on a city-wide alert today.

STATE POLICE LIEUTENANT HERALD PORTERFIELD warned the public by newspaper and radio to avoid striking matches near any city sewer opening as the jet fuel drained into the city mains from the damaged tanker. Firemen were pumping water into the sewers to dilute the danger as much as possible.

THE ACCIDENT OCCURRED ABOUT MIDNIGHT AND State and City Police and city firemen were on duty until daylight this morning, with a four-block area around Hotel Barlow roped off and hose lines playing on the damaged truck and pumping water down storm sewers.

THE JET FUEL TANKER WAS DRIVEN BY BERLA LEE Childers of Waskom, Texas. The truck owner is R. A. Corbett Transport Co. of Lufkin, Texas.

THE CRASH TURNED THE TRUCK OVER AND DAMAGED the tanker, letting loose a flood of fuel. The outfit was righted after 5 p.m. and hauled off for repairs.

Revenues in State to Hit $108 Million

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state comptroller's office encouraged by May tax collection reports, now estimates total general revenues will reach $108 million this fiscal year.

The new estimate is considerably higher than the original estimate of $10.4 million made last June and still higher than the revised estimate of $105.4 million issued in March.

The Revenue Department's May report showed an 11-month total of $95.4 million, an increase of $5.2 million over the same period last year. The May total was $15.3 million.

The new estimate means the public school fund probably will get $1 million more than fiscal officers expected. This is the $1 million teacher salary bonus Education Commissioner Arch Ford mentioned last week.

Ford's announcement about the bonus touched off criticism from some of the men opposing Gov. Orval E. Faubus' fifth term bid. They said the timing of the announcement was political.

Under appropriations made by the 1961 Legislature, the state agencies could spend up to $11.4 million this fiscal year if tax revenues hit that figure.

The legislature didn't expect taxes to go that high. The $108 million figure was what lawmakers had in mind all along.

The same $11.4 million in appropriations was made for fiscal 1962-63 and it is expected taxes will hit that height, even without an increase.

May is a key month in the tax collection picture because it brings in most of the state income tax revenues. The huge collection in one month complicates the estimating, however, because no fiscal officer can ever be sure how much income tax will be paid.

Income taxes last month totaled $8,461,752 an all time high. The figure compares with $7,226,669 in May of last year.

For the 11 months, income taxes totaled $20,059,463, compared to $18,990,313.

The sales tax shows the largest increase, up from $47.8 million to $51.4 million. For May along the sales taxes jumped $583,536 to $5,022,857.

REFUNDS TO BE MADE

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP)—Craighead Electric Co-operative Corp. begins making patronage refunds to its members in seven northeast Arkansas counties today.

Earl Walden, manager, said refund checks totaling $28,249 were mailed to all members of the co-op who were members in 1951 and 1952.

Humphrey Uraes Cut in Taxes

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., today urged a cut in individual and corporate income taxes "to strengthen the economy and the stock market."

"It will take more than expressions of friendship and cooperation from the White House and other areas of government to strengthen the market," Humphrey said in a statement.

"What is needed is action," he said. "Delay by Congress or the administration will bring further economic trouble."

The assistant Senate Democratic leader, who talked Thursday in New York with stock exchange officials and other financial leaders, proposed cuts of 2 to 4 percent in corporate levies and 2 percent in personal taxes.

Meanwhile, the recent gyrations of the stock market prompted Rep. Wright Patman, chairman of the Senate House Economic Committee, to ask Congress to approve a $750,000 investigation of the market by the House Banking and Currency Committee.

Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon told the House Ways and Means Committee Thursday the administration was not supporting any immediate income tax cut.

The Treasury has said, however, that such cuts probably will be proposed next year as a part of a tax overhaul measure which will include some provisions to increase revenues in other ways.

The ordination sermon was by Dr. Harold A. Bosley, senior minister of Christ Church Methodist in New York City.

Ira M. Mitchell of St. Charles was ordained as elder, and deacons were Mike R. Clayton, Benton; William P. Fisher, Hickory Plains; Stacy Ollar Jr., Traskwood; James R. Scudder, Carthage; Carl Allen Settle, Little Rock; Robert Van Hooks II, El Dorado; and Hollis R. Williams, Little Rock.

Petit Jean Fracus to Be Reviewed

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A concession contract held by a man charged with assault with a deadly weapon will be reviewed today by the state Publicity and Parks Commission, according to Commission Chairman L. C. Dial of Brinkley.

The contract for a concession at Petit Jean State Park is held by Mark Rowland, who is accused of beating a Morrilton teenager with a shotgun May 4.

Rowland, the son-in-law of State Rep. Loid Sadler of Conway County, operates Mather Lodge, the park's overnight facility.

Dial would not say if there was any connection between the charges and the commission's decision to review Rowland's contract.

Russia Hikes Prices of All Food

By PRESTON GROVER

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union today hiked consumer prices of meat and butter to finance the country's lagging agricultural program in the face of food shortages.

Butter—up 25 per cent—will cost $1.83 a pound; pork and beef—up 30 per cent—will retail for 88 cents a pound.

The effect of the increases are measured against salaries much lower than those in most foreign countries. A semiskilled Soviet worker gets the equivalent of $88 a month, professional and semiprofessional people about $222 a month.

The government announcement said that the increased charges were necessary because there was no other means of raising money to pay the increased expenses on farms.

Blame was placed in part upon the United States. The statement said it was not possible to "switch funds to increasing the output of livestock products at the expense of the country's defensive capacity."

"We do not live in a vacuum. While imperialism exists, the danger of new wars will remain. It is no secret that international reaction, with the United States at the head, now is engaged in sabre rattling, conducts a feverish arms race and harbors plans for a surprise rocket nuclear attack on the U.S.S.R. and the other socialist countries. Its politicians and generals speak openly of this."

The order for the increase in prices was issued by the Communist party central committee and the government. Its effect was law since all stores are government stores and the prices are fixed by decree.

The statement said the cost of producing food, meat and butter had increased sharply because of the expenditures on mechanization on the farms.

The announcement made it plain that people in the cities are going to bear the lion's share of the burden of the increased prices. That will tend to level out the living standards of the city and country groups. Normally city people have lived better in the Soviet Union because of a sharp salary and income advantage accorded them from the time of the revolution.

As for me, I am impatiently waiting for the pine of Italian origin which I have to grow taller than its present six inches. Who knows? In ten years I may be able to decorated a dessert with the nuts from it, but I don't know if they should be called "pine nuts" or not. Do you have a suggestion for a better name?

The three trees in the Southside Assembly Church yard withstood the severe winter just past, so it seems reasonable that they are pretty hardy. Those of you who are interested in finding out more about these pine trees with edible nuts should call Bro. Geno, PR 7-3309.

Arkansas, the Land of Pine Forests, Has Something New--a Pine That Produces Nuts

By MARY ANITA LASETER

In Arkansas, where more than 60 per cent of the land is forested and where wood-processing is the No. 1 industry, tree-growing is not exactly "something new." This is especially true of the pine, our state tree.

However, here in Hope we have a few pine trees growing that could mean the introduction of a new species of our area. An Italian pine. That's right. Straight from "the boot" itself.

The Rev. Joseph S. Geno, pastor of the Southside Assembly, is responsible for having Italian pines tree in Hope, as he secured them from "The Old Country" and three are growing in the yard of his church at the present time.

These little trees are less than one foot tall now and are only two year old. But when they mature, these pines will be as tall as our familiar Arkansas pines.

The seeds for the tree were sent from Pompeii, Italy, after Bro. Geno had done missionary work there. It takes about a month for the seeds to germinate and probably 10 years to reproduce.

The needles, which are rather short and are green with a bluish cast from inside a nut while it's still underground. These needles "slip out" of their "shell" and grow tall. It is approximately 45 days before the "trunk" of the tree starts to form.

Edible nuts grow on these trees, making them unusual pines. The nuts are dark brown with a tint of green, and they grow to the size of a No. 1 peanut. The Italians cook with these nuts as seasoning, much as we use walnuts on pecans.

Apparently, most characteristics of these trees are similar to the pine trees known in Arkansas. Their cones are large, the size of a small pineapple and the same shape as one. The nuts are found at the base of these cones.

To grow these pine trees, it is suggested that a nut be planted in a can of soil. When the needles appear, the bottom of the can should be cut out and the rest of the can and the earth planted together. This prevents any disturbance of the roots. And, in time, the can will disintegrate.

Those who grow these trees must be careful and not get them too wet. That is fortunate with the dry summers we generally have in this part of our state. Since the natural habitat of these trees is the mild, Mediterranean area of Italy, it probably seems questionable about their withstanding a more extreme winter.

Benny Swings and So Does the Russians

By GEORGE SYVERTSEN

MOSCOW (AP)—When you swing it they live—even in Moscow.

Benny Goodman's band souped up an old Casack melody, "Meadowlands," with some good old Mississippi River sludge Thursday night and had young Muscovites hopping.

"The American 'king of swing' brought fans out of their seats and marching toward the stage—a gesture of a happy crowd in the Soviet Union.

A few firm volunteer police wearing red arm bands kept the enthusiasts in check but didn't try to put a damper on the gay festivities.

Soviet Premier Khrushchev's stamp of approval, showing up at the opening concert the night before, put the audience in a relaxed mood for music they often had heard officially criticized.

The government brass stayed home Thursday night and the crowd of 5,000, including Soviet beatnik poet Evgeny Yevushenko, let go.

Goodman was called back for 25 minutes of encores.

At several points the audience began whistling—usually a sign of displeasure but this time clearly applause. Apparently they got the idea that whistling is what jazz lovers in the United States do when they want more, so they tried it.

Joya Sherrill, girl vocalist with the Goodman band who caught Khrushchev's fancy opening night, again was the big hit. She sang "Katusha" in Russian with an accent that would have brought blushes to a linguist—but the crowd loved it.

Consultant Fired by U. S. Department

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Office of Emergency Planning fired one of its consultants today and asked the Justice Department to look into what it called an "apparent conflict of interest violation" brought out in the Senate investigation of stockpiling.

Simultaneously Chairman Stuart Symington, D-Mo., of the investigating group said its study has brought out evidence of two instances of "clear-cut conflicts of interest," and has shown that the taxpayers face a loss of probably much more than $1 billion on the defense stockpile.

Symington said, too, that an inquiry will be made into whether companies headed by George M. Humphrey, secretary of the Treasury in the Eisenhower administration, made exorbitant profits on stockpile nickel.

The man whose contract as a consultant was canceled by the emergency planning office is John D. Morgan Jr., one-time assistant to the deputy director of the materials division of the old Office of Defense Mobilization which had over-all direction of stockpiling in the Eisenhower administration.

More recently he has been a consultant, at $50 a day when actually working, to the successor agency. The stockpiling inquiry centered Thursday on the circumstances in 1957 under which Climax Molybdenum Co. was let out of a contract to deliver about 38 million pounds of its steel alloying metal.

The government first asked for $4.5 million as a cancellation fee, figuring that as the amount of extra money the company would make by selling the molybdenum to other buyers, but finally settled for $1.2 million.

The subcommittee heard testimony that Morgan, who had resigned his ODM job less than a year before, drew $10,000 in pay from Climax as a consultant on its molybdenum contract in 1957, and in the same year drew around $3,000 in consultant fees from the government. There was no testimony linking Morgan to the cancellation.

R. C. Coburn, the committee's chief counsel, said Morgan now teaches school in Daytona Beach, Fla., and has advised the investigators it would not be convenient for him to testify until after June 15.

Edward A. McDermott, director of the Office of Emergency Planning, said in announcing cancellation of Morgan's consultant contract that Morgan had been "afforded an opportunity to appear before the Symington subcommittee and explain his activities but has refused to do so."

McDermott said his action on Morgan's contract, and in referring the matter to the Justice Department, was based not only on hearing testimony but on "information developed by my staff earlier."

more rapid than that of Arkansas, the South and the nation. Walraven said new jobs created by new plants not only helped reduce the rate of outmigration in the area but also accelerated the urbanization process and increased the rate of growth of per capita income.

New off-the-farm job opportunities enabled an increasing number of farmers and farm workers to supplement their farm income and, consequently, persuaded them to remain in the area.

More urbanization and a higher per capita income increased the demand for services.

"Finally," the report said, "The new plants appeared to have stimulated employment in the already existing plants by increasing the area's overall economic activity, including local demand for products manufactured by the older firms."

Estimated 1960 per capita income in Washington and Benton counties was about 44 per cent higher than estimated 1955 income, Walraven said, and 32 per cent higher than the 1950 estimate.

Graham Talk About His Retirement

CHICAGO (AP) — Evangelist Billy Graham, in Chicago for a 19 day crusade for Christ, says he is looking forward to the day when he can return to Christian education work in a small college. "I don't know when the last crusade will come, but I do know these years of the revival have taken a great physical price," Graham said Thursday. "I don't seem to have the reserve, the strength that I used to have."

The North Carolina evangelist, 43, added "I'm tired of traveling and I'd like to be home with my family."

"Beyond this, my heart is centered upon Christian education work, and that's why a small college is so appealing to me."

Graham was president of small Northwestern College in Minneapolis from 1947 to 1952.

Some 20,500 persons attended the second night's meeting of the crusade in McCormick Place. Approximately 200 persons made "decisions for Christ," bringing the two day total of decision makers to about 50.

Graham told the revival rally that man cannot achieve the sal-

Confucius Had the Right Idea Say Readers

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: I read recently in your column about a young couple who had fixed up a room for Dad; everything beautiful and comfortable but—he must stay in it. No freedom of the house; no being included in parties. "Mind your own business, Dad, and we'll mind ours," was the gist of that letter.

To one who speaks from experience, this comfortable room becomes a lonely confinement. I have been a widow for 32 years and now live with a married daughter. Even though she frequently entertains friends only a few years younger than myself, I'm not welcome.

She and her husband give me shelter from a sense of duty, not love. I would rather be in a cold water tenement on my own than in a beautiful room four walls away from family life and activity.

"We have different interests, Ma," says my daughter. "Do what you want in your own room but don't interfere with us." Her one child, a young girl, is bright. If she had been brought up to feel closer to me, there are many things I could have taught her about sewing which would be helpful in her Four H sewing course.

When I was a young and pretty widow, men courted me. But for my children's sake, I never married again. These men often asked me out to dinner but I always insisted that my children be included. Please state our side of the case, Helen, we—the discarded old, Shame on the ungrateful sons and daughters who make it necessary for our Government to establish Senior Citizens Centers.

But notwithstanding my daughter, I am happy, have a good position and am liked by many elsewhere. Why can't our children be like the Chinese and revere the elderly? —Forgotten Mother

Dear Forgotten: There is a lot to be said for the Chinese idea of ancestor worship but theirs is a very old civilization. Old and young have learned to live together. In North America, ours is a young civilization. We're still adjusting. Having had a grandfather and grandmother whom I adored, I'm partial to old people.

But it's mighty hard for two generations to live in harmony under the same roof. Inevitably one will try to boss the other, especially if both be women. Incidentally, the Chinese symbol for trouble is two women under the same roof. Since you have a job, why not take an apartment with a friend in your generation? The more independent you are, the more respect your daughter will have for you.

Dear Helen: That son and daughter - in-law who consign poor old Dad to what amounts to imprisonment in "a room of his own" are a pair of cold fish who may give him the material things of life but are too darned selfish to give of themselves.

My father-in-law would always be welcome to live with us and if my darling mother were alive, she would be too. Believe me, they would never be relegated to their lonely rooms. I never read a lonely hearts and advice column such as yours and don't know how I happened to be on the particular night your column appeared, poor, old, lonely, Dad, appeared. —Dissenter

Dear Dissenter: Harmony between different generations depends to a great extent upon the individual. Some people, old or young, can be hellions to live with. Mutual consideration is important. If two generations are compelled to share the home, their chances for harmony are better in the country than city. But, wherever the home may be, it is essential that they have a clear understanding of whose home it is.

If the old people live with the young, the latter have the say; though out of consideration to their years and from love, they ten happens that the widowed mother will join her married daughter as did the mother who should speak gently. Since women outlive men nowadays, it of wrote the lead letter of this column.

Unless the mother builds an active, separate life for herself, rich in friends and interests entirely apart from those of her daughter, it just won't work.

Don't Discard Moral Laws, Graham Says

By CHARLES-GENE MCDANIEL

CHICAGO (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham pleaded Wednesday for America to recover its lost frontiers while pursuing new frontiers.

Some 33,500 persons heard Graham say that there are some things which cannot be discarded just because they are old.

"We do not discard the multiplication table because it is old," he said. "Neither should we discard moral laws because they are old."

The Southern Baptist preacher spoke in the arena of McCormick Place, a vast exposition center on the lake front near the downtown district.

Another 5,000 persons were attending a Metropolitan Opera performance in a theater in the 11-acre building.

huge sums from the government for storing surplus grain, and extensive farms — have been placed in the hands of a receiver.

In addition, House and Senate committees are investigating charges that, Estes distributed cash and expensive gifts to win preferential treatment by government officials.

"If it could be proved conclusively that Marshall was a suicide, or that, if he was murdered, it had nothing to do with the Estes case, the political pressure against the Democrats would be reduced," said the News.

A hardware store clerk of Franklin, Lois Smith, told the Houston Chronicle Thursday she sold Marshall a box of 22 cartridges the day he was shot.

"He just came in and told me what he wanted," Mrs. Smith said. "I remember his handing me a dollar."

Sybil Marshall, the widow, said she believed Mrs. Smith was mistaken.

"I'm pretty sure he didn't because he had shells in his bedroom which I found later," Mrs. Marshall said, "and I know he always kept shells in his pickup."

progress. It is time to heal our wounds and get back to the business of building Arkansas."

McMath arrived in Jonesboro Wednesday and began a hand-shaking patrol of the streets and business establishments. At a breakfast today, where he made his speech, McMath said he had met 1,500 voters since arriving. He reiterated his statement that he would not try to repeal the right to work law, and he said he favored a four-year, one-term limitation on the governor's office, and a law similar to the federal Hatch Act for state employees.

"Employees of the Highway Department would not have to go out and solicit funds to keep their jobs if we had such an act," he said.

when there was more humanitarian effort, more good and more interest in religion and social justice than there is today," he said. "But our best does not seem good enough to halt the rising tide of greed, lust, hatred, prejudice and war."

"We have forgotten how to blush in America," and the nation is no longer shocked at crime, wickedness and scandal, he said.

Graham emphasized racial strife as one of mankind's sins and said, "Chicago is one of the cities in the United States that a racial tinder box."

The answer to racial strife, as well as to other sins, he said, is in the Bible. He said that love cannot be legislated but that he favors legislation in the achievement of racial equality.

He termed sex and television the gods which many worship today and lamented the lack of Bible-reading and praying.

The lost frontiers to which people need to return, he said, are: the Ten Commandments as a basis for our moral life; a new sense of sovereignty and power of God; recognition that Christ demands lordship in every department of our lives, and a deeper realization of a personal encounter with Christ.

Crusade officials estimated that 450 persons made "decisions for Christ" when called upon to do so by Graham at the end of his sermon.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

with Major Hoople

GOOD NIGHT! I BEEN WEARIN' OUT MY BRAIN ON HOME WORK ALL YEAR - AN' NOW THAT VACATION'S JUST STARTIN', AN' I COULD GIVE MY HEAD A REST FOR THE SUMMER, HE WANTS TO TEACH ME HOW TO PLAY CHESS!

AN EXCELLENT IDEA! AN OCCASIONAL SKULL SESSION AT THE CHESS BOARD MIGHT HEAD OFF THE MENTAL VACUUM THAT YOU DEVELOP EVERY SUMMER! NOW GET IN THERE AND PAY ATTENTION TO HIM AND MAYBE YOU'LL BE READY FOR THE FALL TERM, A LITTLE LESS LAME-BRAINED THAN USUAL!

EGAD, BUSTER, OBSERVE HOW A GOOD DEED TRAVELS IN A CIRCLE! I OBLIGATED MYSELF TO GET A TRAFFIC TICKET QUASHED FOR A PAL - THEN I FOUND A LOST DOG BELONGING TO THE JUDGE - A REWARD OF $25 WAS GIVEN ME, WITH WHICH I PAID THE SPEEDING FINE - THEN MY PAL GAVE ME A KEG OF BEER!

YES, AN' I'LL BET TH' KEG IS ALMOST AT LOW TIDE NOW! JUST TRANSFER- RING TH' CONTENTS FROM AN OAK BARREL TO ONE WITH A HOLE AROUND IT!

LIGHT OF THE WORLD

Is The Lord Our God

TO

... true happiness, or to a state of disillusionment? Will the future be happier because they have a diploma? Unless they are prepared to take prosperity without pride and adversity without anguish... they are still unprepared. What is crooked by nature can only be made straight by God. If they have learned to do their duty instead of demanding their rights, they are learning God's way of life.
